H.R. No. 144

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, A life rich in family, faith, and friendship drew to 2 a close with the passing of Willie Belle Porter of Longview on 3 October 24, 2010, at the age of 91; and

4           WHEREAS, The ninth child of William and Laura Pettey, the 5 former Willie Belle Pettey was born in Mahl on November 15, 1918;
6 she was joined in matrimony to Madison Jones Porter, and they became 7 the parents of three daughters, Diane, Suzanne, and Jane Ellis; and

8           WHEREAS, In 1959, Mr. Porter's untimely death left 9 Mrs. Porter to raise her little girls on her own; her motto was "if 10 there's a will, there's a way," and she maintained a warm and 11 welcoming household while working as a secretary for the Longview 12 Independent School District and serving as president of the 13 Longview Secretaries Association; she retired from the district 14 after 27 years of dedicated service; and

15           WHEREAS, Mrs. Porter was beloved for her kindness and 16 hospitality; she was a valued member of First Baptist Church for 17 more than six decades, and she found special fulfillment in her 18 Bible Club; with a green thumb and a passion for flowers, she also 19 belonged to the Camellia Garden Club and carefully tended 20 spectacular azaleas, hydrangeas, and camellias; in addition, this 21 gracious lady was known for her skill in duplicate bridge and 22 demonstrated a sense of style in the elegant attire she chose for 23 every occasion; and

24           WHEREAS, Devoted to her grandchildren, Mrs. Porter kept

1 plenty of games and crafts to amuse them on their visits, although 2 any activity with "Granny" was bound to be great fun; she adored 3 taking them shopping or on other outings, and her enthusiasm and 4 creativity helped them develop their imaginations; and

5 WHEREAS, Willie Belle Porter brought joy to all who were 6 privileged to know her, and her shining example of resilience, 7 generosity, and devotion will forever remain an inspiration to 8 those she leaves behind; now, therefore, be it

9 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 82nd Texas
