2 passing of the Reverend Dr. Lawrence A. Crenshaw of San Antonio on 3 December 18, 2010, at the age of 86; and

4 WHEREAS, The son of Etha Mae Winn and Marcus Crenshaw, 5 Lawrence Crenshaw was born in Caldwell County on March 4, 1924; he 6 grew up learning the value of hard work on his family's 239-acre
7 farm, where he chopped wood, hauled water, milked cows, picked 8 cotton, and stripped sugarcane; and

9 WHEREAS, Dr. Crenshaw decided at an early age to dedicate his 10 life to the ministry; after graduating from St. John School in Dale, 11 he attended Conroe College and Mary Allen College, earning 12 bachelor's and master's degrees in theology and divinity as well as 13 a doctorate in divinity; and

14 WHEREAS, During his more than six decades as a pastor,
15 Reverend Crenshaw shared his knowledge, wisdom, and spiritual
16 guidance with many congregations, serving churches in Navasota, 17 Littig, and Round Rock; and

18 WHEREAS, In 1953, he was called to lead Palestine Baptist 19 Church in San Antonio, and through the years, he revitalized the 20 house of worship by creating new outreach ministries to serve 21 members and area residents in need; under his leadership, the 22 congregation built a new facility and spread a message of hope to 23 the greater public through radio and television broadcasts; and

24 WHEREAS, In addition to his work with Palestine Baptist,

1 Dr. Crenshaw served his community of faith as a Bible instructor
2 with Guadalupe College and as vice president and president of the 3 Sunday School and BYBU Congress; he also held offices on local,
4 state, and national levels and as chair of the permanent 5 organization committee, co-chair of the pastor's conference, vice 6 chair of the finance committee, and historian for the district 7 association; and

8 WHEREAS, Reverend Crenshaw exchanged wedding vows with 9 Estella Washington on September 17, 1947, and the couple had a 10 rewarding marriage that spanned more than half a century; after his 11 wife's passing, he was fortunate enough to find love a second time,
12 and in 2007 he married Mattie Johnson, with whom he shared a special 13 enjoyment of traveling; and

14 WHEREAS, Dr. Lawrence Crenshaw was a gifted and devoted 15 pastor who made a profound difference in the lives of those who had 16 the privilege of hearing him preach, and although he is deeply
17 missed, he leaves behind a legacy that will be treasured for years
18 to come; now, therefore, be it
