

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Dr. Henry Ward Bendel, Jr., of Arlington, an admired
2 physician and friend to many, passed away on March 28, 2010, at the 3 age of 86; and

4 WHEREAS, Henry Bendel was born on March 18, 1924, and raised
5 in Greenville, and he attended Texas A&M University--Commerce; as 6 World War II began, he joined the United States Army, earning a 7 Marksmanship Badge during basic training, and although he was not 8 called to active duty, he remained in the U.S. Army Reserves while 9 he completed his studies; after graduating from the University of 10 Tennessee School of Medicine, he returned to the Lone Star State to 11 complete his residency at Harris Hospital in Fort Worth, and soon he 12 met his future wife, Velma Ray Boone; the couple were joined in 13 matrimony in 1949, and they nurtured a rewarding relationship that 14 spanned more than five decades, until her passing; and

15 WHEREAS, Dr. Bendel established a general medical practice in 16 Honey Grove, but his work was interrupted when he volunteered for 17 military service a second time; on joining the U.S. Air Force during 18 the Korean War, he was stationed at Elmendorf Air Force Base in 19 Alaska, where he served as a flight surgeon, and he later retired as 20 a captain; and

21 WHEREAS, By the mid-1950s, Dr. Bendel was training in 22 orthopedic surgery at a VA hospital in McKinney, and he went on to 23 complete an orthopedic residency at Scottish Rite Hospital in 24 Dallas; urged by the city's mayor, Dr. Bendel moved his family to 25 Arlington and launched a private medical practice in 1958; after he

1 completed his first year in practice, he teamed up with a group of 2 other new doctors in the area, and they formed the Survivor's Club
3 to keep in touch through the years as their careers advanced; Dr.
4 Bendel further contributed his expertise to the football teams of 5 The University of Texas at Arlington, Arlington High School, and 6 Sam Houston High School, and he later established the Arlington
7 Orthopedic Group; and

8 WHEREAS, In his leisure time, Dr. Bendel enjoyed hunting, and 9 he was active in the Arlington Sportsman Club and the National Rifle 10 Association; in addition, he was a 32nd degree Mason and a member of 11 the Arlington Masonic Lodge, and he served on the vestry of St.
12 Alban's Episcopal Church; and

13 WHEREAS, Although his death has brought great sorrow to his 14 loved ones, Henry Bendel leaves behind many fond memories that they 15 will forever treasure; now, therefore, be it

16 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 82nd Texas
17 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the life of Henry Ward Bendel, 18 Jr., and extend sincere sympathy to the members of his family: to 19 his children, Paul Bendel and his wife, Rebecca, Martha Pritchard
20 and her husband, David, and Ward Bendel; to his grandchildren,
21 David Bendel and Megan and Molly Pritchard; and to his other 22 relatives and friends; and, be it further

23 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 24 prepared for his family, and that when the Texas House of 25 Representatives adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Dr. Henry 26 Ward Bendel, Jr.
