

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Jim Dunlap retired as an instructor and curator at 2 Holifield Science Learning Center in the Plano Independent School
3 District in December 2010, bringing to a close an exemplary career 4 in education that has spanned nearly three and a half decades; and

5 WHEREAS, Mr. Dunlap first became fascinated with animals when 6 he was growing up in Mesquite; by the age of 10, he had a collection 7 of 52 box turtles, and his father built a shed in the backyard to 8 house them; and

9 WHEREAS, After serving in the U.S. Army in Germany, Mr.
10 Dunlap returned to Texas and started his career as a biology teacher 11 at Plano Senior High School in the 1970s; he engaged students with 12 his passion for nature and especially captured their attention when 13 he shared his live animal collection; his classes soon became so 14 popular that he had to move rooms every few years to accommodate the 15 demand; and

16 WHEREAS, Mr. Dunlap and his growing menagerie eventually 17 relocated from the school building entirely; in 1989, the 18 district's science learning center opened, and Mr. Dunlap became 19 curator of the Living Materials Center there; no longer Plano 20 Senior High's resource alone, Mr. Dunlap became an icon to 21 thousands of local students who learned hands-on about the 22 fascinating world of animals during field trips to the center or 23 during Mr. Dunlap's visits to their classrooms with his animals in 24 tow; and

1 WHEREAS, Through the years, a variety of creatures have made
2 their home at the Living Materials Center, some permanently and 3 some until a better place could be found; among the 200 to 400
4 regular residents are Blossom the cockatoo, who dances to the song
5 "Barbara Ann," Wilma the turkey buzzard, Louie the bobcat, and Toby 6 the African spur-thighed tortoise; Katy the python, a longtime 7 companion of Mr. Dunlap's who earned him the nickname "the snake 8 man," was a favorite of students until she passed away; although the 9 center will not be the same without Mr. Dunlap's delightful 10 presence, his contributions will forever be reflected in the 11 facility's new name, the Jim Dunlap Living Materials Center; and

12 WHEREAS, Mr. Dunlap's reputation extends well beyond Plano 13 ISD, thanks to his many appearances on cable television and his 14 published works, including nonfiction and children's fiction; in 15 retirement, he will continue to share his insights and knowledge 16 about animals as an employee of the Dallas Zoo; and

17 WHEREAS, Beloved by generations of North Texans, Jim Dunlap
18 inspired in countless students curiosity and excitement about the 19 natural world, and it is indeed a pleasure to honor him for his 20 outstanding service; now, therefore, be it

21 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 82nd Texas
22 Legislature hereby congratulate Jim Dunlap on his retirement from 23 Plano ISD and extend to him sincere best wishes for continued
24 happiness; and, be it further

H.R. No. 797

1 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 2 prepared for Mr. Dunlap as an expression of high regard by the Texas
3 House of Representatives.
