1           WHEREAS, Locally owned and operated businesses are vital to 2 the economic well-being of Texas communities, and in 2011, Reunion
3 Ranch in Georgetown is celebrating 25 years of service as an event 4 venue; and

5           WHEREAS, Founded in September 1986 by Jay Pearce and his 6 family, Reunion Ranch is located on 116 acres in the Hill Country
7 and hosts corporate retreats, seminars, team-building events, 8 weddings, and school field days; the property includes an 9 11,000-square-foot indoor facility, known as SaddleCreek Crossing, 10 that can accommodate 600 people, and it also features picnic
11 grounds, a swimming pool, a lake, and a children's area with a maze, 12 a fort, and zip lines; and

13           WHEREAS, The ranch is supported by a professional 14 event-planning staff that can help coordinate a range of 15 entertainment; among the different productions held at the ranch
16 over the years have been fireworks displays, skydiving
17 demonstrations, and performances by well-known musicians; Texas 18 History Comes Alive, a reenactment of important moments in the 19 state's history, is a regular offering of the facility; and

20           WHEREAS, For a quarter of a century, Reunion Ranch has 21 contributed to the local economy as well as provided an attractive, 22 convenient, and pleasant setting for groups and families to 23 celebrate their special occasions, and it is indeed a pleasure to 24 honor the business during this milestone year; now, therefore, be
