7 Balch, who had fought for the independence of Texas at the Battle of 8 San Jacinto and other engagements, settled in the area with his 9 family; his land contained a permanent spring that became a 10 gathering place for nearby residents, and the settlement that took 11 shape over the following decades was named for him and this vital 12 water source; and

13 WHEREAS, Balch Springs was incorporated in 1953, when few 14 more than 3,000 people lived there; the population rose in the 15 decades that followed, with an increasing number of manufacturing 16 companies and other businesses opening their doors; and

17 WHEREAS, Today, this bustling city is home to nearly 24,000
18 people and serves as a southeastern gateway to the Metroplex; it 19 offers convenient access to the surrounding area as well as to major 20 interstate and international transportation routes, and its 21 location, combined with its forward-looking civic leadership and 22 productive workforce, has attracted numerous companies, including 23 a number of firms in the telecommunications industry; and

24 WHEREAS, Quality of life is another factor in the city's

1 growth, and numerous residents have been drawn by its thriving
2 community atmosphere, highly regarded schools, and myriad options
3 for housing, entertainment, and recreation; and

4 WHEREAS, Offering a mixture of small-town charm and big-city
5 convenience, Balch Springs is a great place to live, work, and 6 conduct business, and its many contributions to the Lone Star State
7 deserve to be honored and celebrated; now, therefore, be it

8 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 82nd Texas
9 Legislature hereby recognize April 19, 2011, as Balch Springs Day
10 at the State Capitol and extend to the visiting delegation sincere 11 best wishes for a productive and enjoyable time in Austin.
