

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Memories of a life filled with joyful times and 2 meaningful accomplishments remain to comfort the loved ones of 3 former Plano mayor Robert Lee Harrington, Jr., who passed away on 4 February 17, 2010, at the age of 76; and

5 WHEREAS, Born in Plano on March 7, 1933, Rob Harrington was 6 the son of Robert Lee Harrington and Donna Boggess Harrington; he 7 graduated from Plano High School and Texas Technological College; 8 in 1953, he married the former Ann Cordell, and they later became 9 the parents of four children, Robin, Ginger, Bill, and Suzan; and

10 WHEREAS, Mr. Harrington was devoted to his family, and he 11 abandoned his own early career plans to return home and care for his 12 brother after a car accident; Mr. Harrington took on management of 13 the family farm, which his great-grandfather had received in a land 14 patent from Sam Houston in 1842, and he tended selflessly to his 15 parents as well; and

16 WHEREAS, After the birth of his two oldest children, Mr.
17 Harrington entered the insurance business and met immediate 18 success; he cofounded Harrington-Patton Insurance Agency in 1964,
19 and he also excelled as a real estate broker; the Collin County 20 Board of Realtors named him Outstanding Director four times; during 21 the 1980s, he helped found United City Corp., and he maintained 22 ranching and farming interests around the state; and

23 WHEREAS, This visionary leader began his tenure in public 24 service in 1964 when he became the youngest mayor in Texas; during

1 his two terms, he led efforts to create a master plan, making Plano
2 one of the first cities to adopt such a blueprint for managing 3 future growth, and he worked to establish many departments,
4 including the parks department, and to set aside land for public
5 parks to benefit future generations; he was a member of the city 6 council from 1971 to 1972, and he further served the community as 7 the charter president of the Plano Jaycees and as organizer of the 8 Plano YMCA; he gave generously of his time and talents to numerous 9 other organizations, and he was an active member of First Christian 10 Church; and

11 WHEREAS, Committed to civic engagement, Mr. Harrington
12 joined with other citizens to found the Republican Party in Collin 13 County; he served as judge in the county's first GOP primary 14 election since Reconstruction; John Connally presented him with the 15 John McVeigh Award in 1979, and he received numerous other 16 accolades; a lifetime member of the National Rifle Association, he 17 was an avid hunter, and he enjoyed gardening and spending time with 18 his family and faithful dog; his warmth and compassion won him 19 myriad friends, and he had the rare ability to make everyone he 20 encountered feel special; and

21 WHEREAS, Through his enduring dedication to his family and 22 his community, Rob Harrington made a lasting, positive difference 23 in the lives of his neighbors and loved ones, and he will long be 24 remembered with admiration and affection; now, therefore, be it

25 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 82nd Texas
