CHAPTER 521A. ELECTION IDENTIFICATION CERTIFICATE

Sec. 521A.001. ELECTION IDENTIFICATION CERTIFICATE. (a) The department shall issue an election identification certificate to a person who states that the person is obtaining the certificate for the purpose of satisfying Section 63.001(b), Election Code, and does not have another form of identification described by Section 63.0101, Election Code, and:

(1) who is a registered voter in this state and presents a valid voter registration certificate; or

(2) who is eligible for registration under Section

6 (c) An election identification certificate may not be used
7 or accepted as a personal identification certificate.

8 (d) An election officer may not deny the holder of an 9 election identification certificate the ability to vote because the 10 holder has an election identification certificate rather than a 11 driver's license or personal identification certificate issued
12 under this subtitle.

13 (e) An election identification certificate must be similar 14 in form to, but distinguishable in color from, a driver's license

16 cooperate with the secretary of state in developing the form and 17 appearance of an election identification certificate.

19 original or renewal election identification certificate to furnish 20 to the department the information required by Section 521.142.

22 election identification certificate after determining that the 23 holder was not entitled to the certificate or gave incorrect or 24 incomplete information in the application for the certificate.

25 (h) A certificate expires on a date specified by the 26 department, except that a certificate issued to a person 70 years of 27 age or older does not expire.

1           Explanation: This addition is necessary to provide election 2   identification certificates to certain voters without charge to 3   enable those voters to meet the photo identification requirements
4   for voting.
