8 order is rendered until the month in which the child turns 18 years
9 of age, based on the amount of the periodic monthly child support 10 payment under the child support order;

11 (2) the present value of the total amount of health

16 paid; and

17 (3) in the case of a disabled child under 18 years of 18 age or an adult disabled child, an amount to be determined by the 19 court under Section 154.306.

20 SECTION 11. Sections 154.062(d) and (e), Family Code, are 21 amended to read as follows:

22 (d) The court shall deduct the following items from

24 support:

25 (1) social security taxes;

26 (2) federal income tax based on the tax rate for a 27 single person claiming one personal exemption and the standard

1 deduction;

2 (3) state income tax;

3 (4) union dues; and

4 (5) expenses for the cost of health insurance, dental 5 insurance, [~~or~~] cash medical support, and cash dental support for 6 the obligor's child ordered by the court under Sections [~~Section~~] 7 154.182 and 154.1825.

8 (e) In calculating the amount of the deduction for health 9 care or dental coverage for a child under Subsection (d)(5), if the 10 obligor has other minor dependents covered under the same health or 11 dental insurance plan, the court shall divide the total cost to the 12 obligor for the insurance by the total number of minor dependents, 13 including the child, covered under the plan.

14 SECTION 12. Section 154.064, Family Code, is amended to 15 read as follows:

16 Sec. 154.064. MEDICAL SUPPORT AND DENTAL SUPPORT FOR CHILD
17 PRESUMPTIVELY PROVIDED BY OBLIGOR. The guidelines for support of a

19 obligor to provide medical support and dental support for the child 20 in addition to the amount of child support calculated in accordance 21 with those guidelines.

22 SECTION 13. The heading to Subchapter D, Chapter 154, 23 Family Code, is amended to read as follows:

24 SUBCHAPTER D. MEDICAL SUPPORT AND DENTAL SUPPORT FOR CHILD

25 SECTION 14. Subchapter D, Chapter 154, Family Code, is 26 amended by adding Section 154.1815 to read as follows:

27 Sec. 154.1815. DENTAL SUPPORT ORDER. (a) In this section,

1 "reasonable cost" means the cost of a dental insurance premium that 2 does not exceed three percent of the obligor's annual resources, as 3 described by Section 154.062(b), if the obligor is responsible 4 under a dental support order for the cost of dental insurance
5 coverage for only one child. If the obligor is responsible under a 6 dental support order for the cost of dental insurance coverage for 7 more than one child, "reasonable cost" means the total cost of 8 dental insurance coverage for all children for which the obligor is 9 responsible under a dental support order that does not exceed three 10 percent of the obligor's annual resources, as described by Section 11 154.062(b).

12 (b) In a suit affecting the parent-child relationship or in 13 a proceeding under Chapter 159, the court shall render an order for 14 the dental support of the child as provided by this section and 15 Section 154.1825.

16 (c) Before a hearing on temporary orders, or a final order 17 if no hearing on temporary orders is held, the court shall require 18 the parties to the proceedings to disclose in a pleading or other 19 document whether the child is covered by dental insurance and, if 20 the child is covered, the identity of the insurer providing the 21 coverage, the policy number, which parent is responsible for 22 payment of any insurance premium for the coverage, whether the 23 coverage is provided through a parent's employment, and the cost of 24 the premium. If dental insurance is not in effect for the child, 25 the parties must disclose to the court whether either parent has 26 access to dental insurance at a reasonable cost to the obligor.

27 (d) In rendering temporary orders, the court shall, except

1 for good cause shown, order that any dental insurance coverage in 2 effect for the child continue in effect pending the rendition of a 3 final order, except that the court may not require the continuation 4 of any dental insurance that is not available to the parent at a 5 reasonable cost to the obligor. If dental insurance coverage is not 6 in effect for the child or if the insurance in effect is not 7 available at a reasonable cost to the obligor, the court shall, 8 except for good cause shown, order dental insurance coverage for 9 the child as provided by Section 154.1825.

10 (e) On rendering a final order the court shall:

11 (1) make specific findings with respect to the manner 12 in which dental insurance coverage is to be provided for the child, 13 in accordance with the priorities identified under Section 14 154.1825; and

15 (2) except for good cause shown or on agreement of the 16 parties, require the parent ordered to provide dental insurance
17 coverage for the child as provided by Section 154.1825 to produce 18 evidence to the court's satisfaction that the parent has applied 19 for or secured dental insurance or has otherwise taken necessary 20 action to provide for dental insurance coverage for the child, as 21 ordered by the court.

22 SECTION 15. Subchapter D, Chapter 154, Family Code, is 23 amended by adding Section 154.1825 to read as follows:

24 Sec. 154.1825. DENTAL CARE COVERAGE FOR CHILD. (a) In this 25 section:

26 (1) "Accessibility" means the extent to which dental 27 insurance coverage for a child provides for the availability of 1 dental care within a reasonable traveling distance and time from 2 the child's primary residence, as determined by the court.

3 (2) "Reasonable cost" has the meaning assigned by 4 Section 154.1815(a).

5 (b) The court shall consider the cost, accessibility, and 6 quality of dental insurance coverage available to the parties and 7 shall give priority to dental insurance coverage available through 8 the employment of one of the parties if the coverage is available at 9 a reasonable cost to the obligor.

10 (c) In determining the manner in which dental care coverage 11 for the child is to be ordered, the court shall render its order in 12 accordance with the following priorities, unless a party shows good 13 cause why a particular order is not in the best interest of the 14 child:

15 (1) if dental insurance is available for the child
16 through a parent's employment or membership in a union, trade 17 association, or other organization at reasonable cost, the court 18 shall order that parent to include the child in the parent's dental 19 insurance;

20 (2) if dental insurance is not available for the child
21 under Subdivision (1) but is available to a parent from another 22 source and at a reasonable cost, the court may order that parent to 23 provide dental insurance for the child; or

24 (3) if dental insurance coverage is not available for 25 the child under Subdivision (1) or (2), the court shall order the 26 obligor to pay the obligee, in addition to any amount ordered under 27 the guidelines for child support, an amount, not to exceed three

1 percent of the obligor's annual resources, as described by Section 2 154.062(b), as cash dental support for the child.

3 (d) If the parent ordered to provide dental insurance under 4 Subsection (c)(1) or (2) is the obligee, the court shall order the 5 obligor to pay the obligee, as additional child support, an amount 6 equal to the actual cost of dental insurance for the child, but not 7 to exceed a reasonable cost to the obligor. In calculating the 8 actual cost of dental insurance for the child, if the obligee has 9 other minor dependents covered under the same dental insurance 10 plan, the court shall divide the total cost to the obligee for the 11 insurance by the total number of minor dependents, including the 12 child covered under the plan.

13 (e) If the court finds that neither parent has access to 14 private dental insurance at a reasonable cost to the obligor, the 15 court shall order the parent awarded the exclusive right to 16 designate the child's primary residence or, to the extent permitted 17 by law, the other parent to apply immediately on behalf of the child 18 for participation in any government medical assistance program or 19 health plan that provides dental coverage. If the child 20 participates in a government medical assistance program or health 21 plan that provides dental coverage, the court shall order cash 22 dental support under Subsection (c)(3).

23 (f) An order requiring the payment of cash dental support 24 under Subsection (c)(3) must allow the obligor to discontinue 25 payment of the cash dental support if:

26 (1) dental insurance for the child becomes available 27 to the obligor at a reasonable cost; and

1 (2) the obligor:

2 (A) enrolls the child in the insurance plan; and

3 (B) provides the obligee and, in a Title IV-D
4 case, the Title IV-D agency, the information required under Section 5 154.185.

6 SECTION 16. Section 154.183, Family Code, is amended to 7 read as follows:

8 Sec. 154.183. MEDICAL AND DENTAL SUPPORT ADDITIONAL SUPPORT
9 DUTY OF OBLIGOR. (a) An amount that an obligor is ordered to pay 10 as medical support or dental support for the child under this 11 chapter, including the costs of health insurance coverage or cash 12 medical support under Section 154.182 and the costs of dental 13 insurance or cash dental support under Section 154.1825:

14 (1) is in addition to the amount that the obligor is 15 required to pay for child support under the guidelines for child
16 support;

17 (2) is a child support obligation; and 18 (3) may be enforced by any means available for the 19 enforcement of child support, including withholding from earnings 20 under Chapter 158.

21 (b) If the court finds and states in the child support order 22 that the obligee will maintain health insurance coverage, dental 23 insurance coverage, or both, for the child at the obligee's 24 expense, the court shall increase the amount of child support to be 25 paid by the obligor in an amount not exceeding the actual cost to 26 the obligee for maintaining the [~~health insurance~~] coverage, as 27 provided under Sections [~~Section~~] 154.182(b-1) and 154.1825(d).

1 (c) As additional child support, the court shall allocate 2 between the parties, according to their circumstances:

3 (1) the reasonable and necessary health care expenses,
4 including vision and dental expenses, of the child that are not 5 reimbursed by health or dental insurance or are not otherwise
6 covered by the amount of cash medical support ordered under Section 7 154.182 or cash dental support ordered under Section 154.1825 8 ~~[154.182(b)(3)]~~; and

9 (2) amounts paid by either party as deductibles or 10 copayments in obtaining health care or dental care services for the 11 child covered under a health insurance or dental insurance policy.

12 SECTION 17. Sections 154.184(a) and (b), Family Code, are 13 amended to read as follows:

14 (a) Receipt of a medical support order requiring that health 15 insurance be provided for a child or a dental support order 16 requiring that dental insurance be provided for a child shall be 17 considered a change in the family circumstances of the employee or 18 member, for health insurance purposes and dental insurance 19 purposes, equivalent to the birth or adoption of a child.

20 (b) If the employee or member is eligible for dependent 21 health coverage or dependent dental coverage, the employer shall 22 automatically enroll the child for the first 31 days after the 23 receipt of the order or notice of the medical support order or the 24 dental support order under Section 154.186 on the same terms and 25 conditions as apply to any other dependent child.

27 read as follows:

1 Sec. 154.185. PARENT TO FURNISH INFORMATION. (a) The court
2 shall order a parent providing health insurance or dental insurance 3 to furnish to either the obligee, obligor, or child support agency 4 the following information not later than the 30th day after the date 5 the notice of rendition of the order is received:

6 (1) the social security number of the parent;

7 (2) the name and address of the parent's employer;

8 (3) with regard to health insurance:

9 (A) whether the employer is self-insured or has 10 health insurance available;

19 of the schedule of benefits, a membership card, claim forms, and any 20 other information necessary to submit a claim; and 21 (4) with regard to dental insurance:

22 (A) whether the employer is self-insured or has 23 dental insurance available;

24 (B) proof that dental insurance has been provided 25 for the child;

26 (C) if the employer has dental insurance 27 available, the name of the dental insurance carrier, the number of 9 child support agency with additional information regarding the 10 health insurance coverage or dental insurance coverage not later 11 than the 15th day after the date the information is received by the

14 amended to read as follows:

16 OR DENTAL SUPPORT.
