

AN ACT

relating to the liability of a volunteer health care practitioner who conducts a physical examination or medical screening of a student athlete.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 91.002, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 91.002. HEALTH CARE PRACTITIONER LIABILITY. Subject to Section 91.003, a health care practitioner who, without compensation or expectation of compensation, conducts a physical examination or medical screening of a patient for the purpose of determining the physical health and fitness of the patient [~~certifying the patient's eligibility~~] to participate in a school-sponsored extracurricular or sporting activity is immune from civil liability for any act or omission resulting in the death of or injury to the patient if:

(1) the health care practitioner was acting in good faith and in the course and scope of the health care practitioner's duties;

(2) the health care practitioner commits the act or omission in the course of conducting the physical examination or medical screening of the patient;

(3) the services provided to the patient are within the scope of the license of the health care practitioner; and

1 (4) before the health care practitioner conducts the
2 physical examination or medical screening, the patient or, if the 3 patient is a minor or is otherwise legally incompetent, the 4 patient's parent, managing conservator, legal guardian, or other
5 person with legal responsibility for the care of the patient signs a
6 written statement that acknowledges:

7 (A) that the health care practitioner is 8 conducting a physical examination or medical screening that is not 9 administered for or in expectation of compensation; and

10 (B) the limitations on the recovery of damages
11 from the health care practitioner in connection with the physical 12 examination or medical screening being performed.

13 SECTION 2. Section 91.002, Civil Practice and Remedies
14 Code, as amended by this Act, applies only to the death of or injury
15 to a patient that occurs on or after the effective date of this Act.
16 The death of or injury to a patient that occurs before the effective
17 date of this Act is governed by the law in effect immediately before
18 the effective date of this Act, and that law is continued in effect
19 for that purpose.

20 SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2011.
