SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The cruise operations in the homeports of Galveston and Houston have an enormous economic impact on Texas; together, the cities hosted some 680,000 passenger and crew visits in 2007, which accounted for $1.07 billion in direct spending; in addition, the industry was responsible for generating over 18,500 Texas jobs and paying $893 million in wage income; and

WHEREAS, South of Galveston, between Calhoun and Cameron Counties, Texas is home to several growing cities, robust tourism, and a wealth of natural resources; the area also hosts three major deepwater ports, any of which might be a viable site for a cruise line headquarters or a port of embarkation; and

13 WHEREAS, Florida and California, respectively, benefit the most from the North American cruise industry; both states currently 14 operate five ports, including Port Canaveral, Port Everglades, 15 Jacksonville, Miami, and Tampa in Florida, and Los Angeles, Long 16 Beach, San Diego, San Francisco, and Oakland in California; an 17 18 additional Texas cruise ship port between Calhoun and Cameron Counties could offer an attractive vacation option 19 20 significant portion of the state's residents and be an economic boon to the state as a whole; now, therefore, be it 21

RESOLVED, That the 82nd Legislature of the State of Texas hereby request the lieutenant governor and the speaker of the house of representatives to provide for a joint interim legislative study
