FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 14, 2011

TO: Honorable Ryan Guillen, Chair, House Committee on Culture, Recreation & Tourism

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB535 by Phillips (Relating to allowing a deer breeder to process as venison or sell for processing as venison certain breeder deer.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend portions of the Parks and Wildlife Code to allow a holder of a valid deer breeder permit to process a breeder deer as venison, or sell a breeder deer for processing, if the deer is not needed for propagation. No fiscal implication to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department or the state is anticipated from bill amendments. The bill would take effect September 1, 2011.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
