

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 6, 2011

TO: Honorable Chris Harris, Chair, Senate Committee on Jurisprudence

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB962 by Hartnett (Relating to rules regarding return of service.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.
--

The bill would amend the Civil Practice and Remedies Code relating to rules regarding returns of service. The bill would require the Supreme Court of Texas to adopt rules of civil procedure requiring a person who serves process to complete a return of service. According to the Supreme Court, the work involved in adopting such rules would be absorbed by existing staff in the course of its daily work and therefore no significant fiscal impact is anticipated.

The bill would take effect January 1, 2012.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
