

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 28, 2011

TO: Honorable Rob Eissler, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1059 by Menendez (Relating to bullying, including cyberbullying, in public schools.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated. Open enrollment charter schools may experience costs related to the adoption and implementation of discipline management plans which were not previously required of open-enrollment charter schools.

Source Agencies: 701 Central Education Agency

LBB Staff: JOB, LXH, JGM, RBI