

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD

Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 8, 2011

TO: Honorable Byron Cook, Chair, House Committee on State Affairs

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1078 by King, Phil (Relating to the appointment of a guardian ad litem and attorney for a minor in an application for a court order authorizing the minor to consent to an abortion.),
Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Family Code to provide that the same individual may not be appointed as both the guardian ad litem and the attorney for the minor. According to the Office of Court Administration, current law provides that the court may order the state to pay the costs of both the guardian and attorney from funds appropriated to the Texas Department of Health (now the Texas Department of State Health Services). Because the state is already paying both costs, no significant fiscal impact to the state is anticipated. Courts may incur some costs locally in identifying and locating two different individuals who will perform the two roles on the minor's behalf, but the costs should not be significant. The bill would take effect September 1, 2011.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
