

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 24, 2011

TO: Honorable Larry Taylor, Chair, House Committee on Elections

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1503 by White (Relating to the qualifications to serve as a special peace officer at a polling place.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.
---

The bill would amend the Election Code to require a person to be a licensed peace officer by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education in order to be appointed as a special peace officer for a polling place.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Source Agencies:

LBB Staff: JOB, JT, TP