

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 5, 2011

TO: Honorable Byron Cook, Chair, House Committee on State Affairs

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1871 by Giddings (Relating to the amount and payment of attorney's fees in certain workers' compensation cases.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Labor Code relating to the amount and payment of attorney's fees in certain workers' compensation cases. Based on the analysis provided by the Texas Department of Insurance and the Texas Department of Transportation, it is assumed that all duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing agency resources. Based on the analysis provided by the State Office of Risk Management, the Texas A&M University System, and the University of Texas System Administration, it is assumed that implementation of the bill will have no fiscal impact on these agencies.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
