

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 8, 2011

TO: Honorable Harvey Hilderbran, Chair, House Committee on Ways & Means

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2338 by Paxton (Relating to the posting on the Internet by tax officials of information regarding ad valorem tax rates.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Tax Code to require the county assessor-collector and the chief appraiser of an appraisal district that maintain an Internet website to post, as appropriate, certain information regarding ad valorem tax rates for the most recent five tax years that each taxing unit imposes in the current tax year.

The bill would require the Comptroller of Public Accounts to prescribe the requirements for the information.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
