Fiscal Analysis

The bill would amend the Local Government Code, Section 133.152(a) to increase existing filing fees charged in district courts that support basic civil legal services for indigents. The bill would increase a filing fee for family court cases from $5 to $15 and a filing fee for all other cases from $10 per filing to $20.

The changes made by the bill would be exempt from the Government Code, Section 51.607, which makes the increase in the filing fees applicable on the effective date of the bill.

The bill would be effective September 1, 2011.

Methodology

For fiscal year 2010, the Office of Court Administration (OCA) reported, for district courts statewide, 243,528 family filings and 219,917 other filings for a total of 463,445 filings. For its revenue estimate, the Comptroller of Public Accounts (CPA) reviewed the number of filings for fiscal years 2005 to 2010 and adjusted 2011 and beyond to reflect average year-to-year changes. The CPA assumes a 100 percent collection rate for the filing fees and a base year filings of 429,940 for fiscal year 2011. These assumptions result in an estimate of $1.6 million in revenue gain for fiscal year 2012 (adjusted for an implementation lag) and gains ranging from $3.2 million to $3.6 million for subsequent years.

Local Government Impact

The Office of Court Administration (OCA) anticipates that the five percent retention of filing fees by counties to support basic civil legal services for indigents would increase local collections by $251,176 per year. Currently the statewide retention by counties totals $190,904 per year and under the bill it is estimated this would increase to $442,080 per year.
