

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 28, 2011

TO: Honorable Pete Gallego, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2822 by Coleman (Relating to the penalty for and certain other civil consequences of engaging in disorderly conduct for a lewd or unlawful purpose.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure and the Penal Code as they relate to the penalty for and certain other civil consequences of engaging in disorderly conduct for a lewd or unlawful purpose. The bill would add engaging in disorderly conduct for a lewd or unlawful purpose to the list of reportable convictions or adjudications that require an individual to register as a sex offender. Under the provisions of the bill, engaging in disorderly conduct for a lewd or unlawful purpose would be punishable as a state jail felony. At present this type of behavior is a Class C Misdemeanor.

The Texas Department of Public Safety anticipates no significant fiscal impact from the bill to the State or to units of local government.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Source Agencies: 405 Department of Public Safety

LBB Staff: JOB, ESi, GG, DH, LM