Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 6, 2011

TO: Honorable Jane Nelson, Chair, Senate Committee on Health & Human Services

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3065 by Sheffield (Relating to the requirement that certain food service establishments post a sign depicting the Heimlich maneuver.), As Engrossed

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would repeal Subchapter E, of Chapter 438 of the Health And Safety Code which requires food service establishments with on site eating areas to post a sign depicting the Heimlich maneuver. The Department of State Health Services estimates there will be no fiscal impact.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
