Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 12, 2011

TO: Honorable Byron Cook, Chair, House Committee on State Affairs

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3801 by Davis, Sarah (Relating to the exception of certain personal information from disclosure under the public information law.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Government Code related to the Public Information Act to provide that the personal information of an employee can be publically disclosed only if the employee chooses to allow its release in accordance with related statutory provisions. The bill would add personal cellular telephone numbers and personal e-mail addresses to the list of personal employee information protected from public disclosure at the request of an employee. The bill would except the date of birth of a living person from public disclosure but not classify the information as confidential.

This analysis assumes that any costs associated with implementing the bill's provisions could be met with existing resources.

The bill would apply only to a request for information that is received on or after the effective date. The bill would take effect September 1, 2011.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
