Fiscal Analysis

This bill would amend the Health and Safety Code to allow the Department of State Health Services (DSHS) to license all shippers of raw fruits and vegetables and allow DSHS to license packers and washers of raw fruits and vegetables if they are not at the location of the harvest.

Methodology

The DSHS estimates there are 1,430 producers who will be licensed per year with a two year license. DSHS estimates the cost of the license will be $305 and that licensing will begin in FY 2013. It is estimated that DSHS will generate $436,150 in fees annually that will be deposited in Food and Drug Registration Account #5024 (GR-Dedicated).

DSHS estimates that 4.0 FTEs (1 Administrative Assistant II, 2 Sanitarian I, and 1 Sanitarian III) will be needed to license fruit and vegetable shippers. It is estimated that the cost to train and supply the FTEs is $325,000 in FY 2013 and $314,000 in each subsequent year. These costs include $28,000 per year for traveling expenses. It is estimated that equipment to test fruits and vegetables for food-borne illnesses would cost $84,723 in FY 2013 and approximately $61,000 in subsequent years. All costs will be expended from the Food and Drug Registration Account #5024.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
