

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 4, 2011

TO: Honorable Harold V. Dutton Jr., Chair, House Committee on Urban Affairs

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB173 by West (Relating to civil remedy of violations of certain municipal health and safety ordinances.), As Engrossed

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Local Government Code to authorize a municipality to bring an action in rem against a structure that is in violation of a health and safety ordinance as well as a judgment against a defendant.

The bill would authorize a home-rule municipality to bring an action in district court against an owner of property that is not in substantial compliance with certain municipal health and safety ordinances.

Local Government Impact

The fiscal impact would vary depending on how many cases a municipality were to pursue and the outcome of each.
