

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 8, 2011

TO: Honorable Chris Harris, Chair, Senate Committee on Jurisprudence

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB220 by Nelson (Relating to guardianships, including the assessment of prospective wards for, and the provision of, guardianship services by the Department of Aging and Disability Services.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend sections of Human Resources Code 161, and various sections of the Texas Probate Code.

The sections amended in the Human Resources Code and Texas Probate Code clarify certain record issues for the Department of Aging and Disability Services guardianship program, address the assignment and removal of guardians, the successor guardianship process, reinstatement of guardianships, notification of potential volunteer guardians who are related to the ward, and references abuse, neglect, and exploitation, using adult protective services definitions as a basis for removing a guardian.

The Office of Court Administration indicated there would be no significant fiscal implication to implement provisions of the Act. The Department of Aging and Disability Services and Department of Family and Protective Services indicated there would be no fiscal impact.

The Act would take effect September 1, 2011

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
