Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 28, 2011

TO: Honorable Jane Nelson, Chair, Senate Committee on Health & Human Services

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB434 by Nelson (Relating to the relationship between domestic violence and child abuse and neglect.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would establish a task force to address the relationship between domestic violence and child abuse and neglect; require the task force to submit a report with findings and recommendations by September 1, 2012; and require the Health and Human Services Commission to provide reasonably necessary administrative and technical support for task force activities. The bill would be effective immediately with a two-thirds vote of all members of each house, or on September 1, 2011. The task force would be abolished on September 1, 2013. It is assumed any cost to implement provisions of the bill would be minimal and can be absorbed within available resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
