

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 5, 2011

TO: Honorable Jim Jackson, Chair, House Committee on Judiciary & Civil Jurisprudence

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1025 by Harris (Relating to service of citation and appointment of an attorney ad litem for an indigent parent in certain suits affecting the parent-child relationship.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Family Code to provide: (1) that the citation served upon the parent in certain suits affecting the parent-child relationship include information regarding the parent's right to seek an ad litem and how to tender a request for determination of indigence, and (2) a timeframe by which the court shall make an eligibility determination and timely appointment, if qualified. According to the Office of Court Administration, under existing law, trial courts should be making a similar inquiry of the parents and the notice language provided in this bill would not obviate the courts' responsibility. To the extent the bill may result in the appointment of counsel a few days earlier than under existing law, no impact on judicial workloads or fiscal implication to the state is anticipated. The bill would take effect September 1, 2011.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
