

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 82ND LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 18, 2011

TO: Honorable Chris Harris, Chair, Senate Committee on Jurisprudence

FROM: John S O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1751 by Uresti (Relating to calculation of the net resources of a person ordered to pay child support.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Family Code regarding calculation of the net resources of a person ordered to pay child support and requires a deduction from resources for nondiscretionary retirement plan contributions. The office of the Attorney General indicates that any additional costs associated with implementation of the bill could be absorbed within existing resources. The bill would take effect September 1, 2012.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
