

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, Elizabeth Windon and Jacob Rowe, two outstanding
2 tennis players from Kirbyville High School, were named 2013 SETX
3 Players of the Year by the Southeast Texas Coaches Association; and

4           WHEREAS, Both Ms. Windon and Mr. Rowe excelled during team 5 tennis competition, winning all of their matches and helping the 6 Wildcats to finish seventh in the state in Class 2A; the duo also 7 emerged as title contenders in mixed-doubles play; following a 8 first-place win at the Woodville Tournament, they claimed the 9 district title and then went on to become regional champions by 10 defeating the team from White Oak on April 19; their success in the 11 regional competition earned them a place in the University 12 Interscholastic League State Tournament, where their season drew to 13 a close with a hard-fought loss in the 2A quarterfinals; and

14           WHEREAS, In addition to representing their school with great 15 distinction on the court, these notable young Texans have excelled 16 in their studies, and both are looking ahead to college after having 17 graduated with the Class of 2013 at Kirbyville; Ms. Windon plans to 18 attend Texas A&M University to pursue a degree in horticulture, a 19 subject that she focused on during four years of high school
20 agriculture classes, while Mr. Rowe intends to study electrical 21 engineering at Lamar University; and

22           WHEREAS, These talented student-athletes have earned a place
23 among the finest high school tennis players in the Lone Star State, 24 and they may reflect with pride on their achievements and on the

1 prestigious recognition that they have received; now, therefore, be 2 it
