1 as a member of the Institutional Initiatives Committee of The 2 University of Texas M. D. Anderson Cancer Center; moreover, he 3 chaired the Special Commission on the 1999 Bonfire for Texas A&M
4 University; and

5 WHEREAS, Mr. Linbeck also made his mark as a cofounder of 6 Texans for Lawsuit Reform and Americans for Fair Taxation; a major
7 force in the political arena, TLR has worked to shape policy
8 regarding civil lawsuits and, more recently, matters such as public 9 education; and

10 WHEREAS, In addition to public policy, Mr. Linbeck's many 11 avocations included golfing, hunting, and fishing; always an 12 engaging conversationalist, he had the ability to find a topic of 13 mutual interest to discuss with anyone he might meet; he was a
14 lifelong parishioner of St. Anne Catholic Church, and he expressed 15 his strong faith and compassion through his daily actions; and

16 WHEREAS, This esteemed Texan was preceded in death by his 17 wife of 41 years, Connie Linbeck; fortunate to find love a second 18 time, he exchanged wedding vows with Bette Craddock Pressler in 19 2004; and

20 WHEREAS, Leo Linbeck achieved a life of purposefulness and 21 service, and those who were fortunate enough to know him will 22 forever remember his devotion to his family, his community, his 23 state, and his nation; now, therefore, be it

24 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 83rd Texas
