

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 96

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to join Texans across the state in expressing pride and admiration for the heroism exhibited by Kyle Sulak; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Sulak, a third-year student at the Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine, was leaving his home when he heard cries for help from a nearby neighbor, whose hands and legs were on fire as he fled his house; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Sulak had managed to extinguish the flames using water from an outdoor faucet when he heard the man's young daughter calling for help from an upstairs window; he instructed his wife to call 9-1-1 and rushed back to the house; he encountered the man's son standing frozen in the entryway and was able to calm him down enough to get him to help his sister escape; he then led the neighbor's mother from the kitchen to safety outside; and

WHEREAS, After ensuring that no one else was in danger, Mr. Sulak reentered the house and put out the fire; he also kept cold water on the man's burns until help arrived; and

WHEREAS, As a result of his coolheadedness and remarkable poise, his ability to prioritize, and his quick response, Mr. Sulak prevented what might have been grievous loss of life and property; he is truly deserving of recognition for his heroic action; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 83rd Legislature, 1st Called Session, hereby commend Kyle Sulak on his quick thinking and calm action and extend its appreciation to this admirable young man; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for him as an expression of high regard from the Texas Senate.
