

Amend HB 2 (house committee printing) by adding the following subsection, appropriately numbered, to SECTION 10 of the bill and renumbering subsequent subsections of that SECTION accordingly:

(____) If some or all of the provisions of this Act are ever temporarily or permanently restrained or enjoined by judicial order, the party challenging this Act shall recover litigation costs from this state. This state shall pay litigation costs regardless of a subsequent determination by an appellate court. A party described by this section may recover litigation costs from the state if the party prevails in a trial or appellate court.
