

By: Guillen

H.R. No. 191

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Willacy County, located in the southern Lower Rio
2 Grande Valley region of South Texas, containing more than 29,627
3 acres of federally managed land and wildlife; and

4 WHEREAS, Willacy County Commissioners Court recognize the 5 importance of U.S. Department of Interior objectives as the 6 nation's natural resource caretaker with aim to promote public
7 lands, wildlife, environmental sustainable energy and preserve
8 cultural heritage.

9 WHEREAS, Willacy County is a rural community with the 10 diligence of its county leadership to promote its cultural 11 heritage, join with businesses, governmental and civic 12 organizations in alliance, partnership and contractual agreements 13 to foster professional relations aimed to promote a diversified 14 economy while it also maintains its agricultural values, supports 15 conservation of natural resources and wildlife preservation.

16 WHEREAS, The community of Willacy County is a unique regional 17 community known for its abundant natural resources adding economic 18 growth, technology, environmental and energy conservation goals
19 with the recent completion of 600 megawatts wind farm operations
20 facilitating green energy source to South and Central Texas
21 communities, headquarter to a fiber optic corporate office
22 facilitating jobs, rural and regional access to Internet,
23 communication technology and over $20 million energy capital 24 investment expenditure includes current energy exploration in

1 portions of the U.S. public lands located in Willacy County.

2 WHEREAS, Visitors and residents alike enjoy the Santa Ana
3 National Wildlife Refuge, the Tieniente and East Lake - Sal del Rey
4 sections of the Lower Rio Grande Valley National Wildlife Refuge,
5 the Laguna Atascosa National Wildlife Refuge, and the Padre Island
6 National Seashore--Laguna Madre;

7 WHEREAS, Willacy County joins other Lower Rio Grande Valley
8 tourist organization and the regional U.S. Wildlife Refuge to show
9 case natural landscapes, wildlife and promote an average of $400
10 million annual tourist economic impact to the region; as a result,
11 the development of the Coastal Land Resource Center and Laguna 12 Point Recreation Area at Port Mansfield are also vital to enhance 13 environmental science education, outdoor recreation activities,
14 electric generation and conservation and viewing of wildlife 15 including various public infrastructure improvements to promote 16 the fishing industry, access to, and appreciation of, the area's 17 great outdoors are currently in development, with completion dates 18 set for 2014; and

19 WHEREAS, Willacy Commissioners Court in 2009, entered a
20 Mutual Partnership Agreement with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife
21 Service, Santa Ana Wildlife Refuge - South Texas complex to promote 22 ecotourism, accessible roadways, and to manage and preserve its 23 pristine environments; and

24 WHEREAS, U.S. Department of Interior appointed Secretary, 25 Sally Jewell intimately understands the vital role of environmental 26 sustainable energy, ecotourism, preserved cultural heritage plays 27 in local and state economies, and it is indeed appropriate to invite

1 her to see firsthand how the abundant natural resources of Willacy
2 County are helping to drive its economy; now, therefore, be it

3 RESOLVED, That Willacy County hereby extends an official
4 invitation to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Interior, 5 Sally Jewell, to visit Willacy County to learn more about the 6 county's achievements and other areas in the Lower Rio Grande
7 Valley with tour plans relating to the protection and enhancement 8 of the area's environment; and, be it further

9 RESOLVED, That the chief clerk forward an official copy of 10 this resolution to the U.S. Department of Interior.