AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Currently, during the period of time in which the Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) has temporary managing conservatorship of a child, the Family Code only requires that permanency planning meetings occur when the child has been in custody for 45 days, and again at five months. There is no requirement for a planning meeting prior to the one-year mark at which a trial may occur and a final order can be designated. At this stage, parental rights may be terminated and permanent managing conservatorship can be given to a relative or the state. Permanency planning meetings are opportunities for various stakeholders in a child's case to come together to ensure appropriate goals and objectives are set and acted upon to achieve permanency for a child in foster care. Frequent meetings help to ensure that complex cases can be appropriately addressed in the limited time frames set by the state. By establishing timely permanency planning meetings, the opportunity for timelier reunification or another permanent placement for children in foster care increases. To increase the likelihood of reunification for a child, S.B. 534 adds a permanency meeting at nine months after DFPS takes temporary managing conservatorship.

Also, child placing agencies, which are currently not listed as a mandatory recipient of meeting notification, have valuable information on children and their cases and could contribute to the permanency planning process if they receive timely notification. More efficient notification of all professional stakeholders can be increased through the use of electronic notification versus traditional postal services. Because decreasing the amount of time a child spends in foster care provides great savings to the state, S.B. 534 requires that notification of permanency meetings be provided to child placing agencies and other interested parties, and that it be done electronically if possible.

As proposed, S.B. 534 amends current law relating to requiring permanency planning meetings for certain children in the conservatorship of the Department of Family and Protective Services.
