AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

The current Heman Marion Sweatt Travis County Courthouse was built in the 1930s and is overcrowded and inadequate to the needs of the people it serves. The need for significant improvements—up to and including the construction of a new civil and family courthouse—is well-documented, but the costs of such improvements are significant.

Within the last decade, legislation was passed allowing Bexar, Hays, and Dallas Counties to assess an additional fee on civil cases as a revenue source to help improve courthouse facilities. Travis County seeks to emulate their model.

S.B. 1891 amends the Government Code to provide for the collection of a court filing fee of $15 in certain civil cases filed in a district court, statutory probate court, or county court at law in Travis County for construction, renovation, and improvement of court facilities. The bill makes the $15 fee contingent on a commissioners court resolution and subject to rescission by the commissioners court. The fee will expire in 2028, unless rescinded by the commissioners court before 2028.

S.B. 1891 amends current law relating to the imposition of an additional fee for filing civil cases in certain Travis County courts.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
