1 detain, without charge, any person, including a citizen of the 2 United States or a lawful resident alien, regardless of whether the 7 authorize:

9 within the United States without charge or trial;

10 (B) prosecution by military tribunals under the 11 law of war for persons apprehended within the United States; and

12 (C) transfer of persons apprehended within the 13 United States to foreign jurisdictions;

14 (6) in authorizing the actions described by 15 Subdivision (5) of this subsection, Sections 1021 and 1022 of the 16 National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012 (Pub. L.
17 No. 112-81) are inimical to the liberty, security, and well-being 18 of the citizens of the State of Texas by violating:

19 (A) the Texas Constitution;

20 (B) the limits of federal power authorized by 21 Article I, Section 8, United States Constitution;

22 (C) the legal doctrine of Posse Comitatus under 23 18 U.S.C. Section 1385 by authorizing the armed forces of the United 24 States to police the United States; and

25 (D) the following provisions of the United States
26 Constitution:

27 (i) Article I, Section 9, Clause 2

1 (ensuring the right to seek a habeas corpus);

2 (ii) the First Amendment (ensuring the 3 right to petition the federal government for the redress of 4 grievances);

5 (iii) the Fourth Amendment (ensuring the 6 right to be free from unreasonable search and seizure);

7 (iv) the Fifth Amendment (requiring capital
8 or infamous crimes to be brought before a grand jury before charging 9 the defendant and prohibiting deprivation of life, liberty, or 10 property without due process of law);

11 (v) the Sixth Amendment (ensuring the right
12 to a speedy trial by an impartial jury in the state or district 13 where the offense was alleged to have been committed, the right to 14 be informed of the nature and cause of accusations and charges
15 levied, the right to retain legal counsel, and the right to confront 16 witnesses);

17 (vi) the Eighth Amendment (prohibiting
18 excessive bail and fines and prohibiting cruel and unusual 19 punishment); and

20 (vii) the Fourteenth Amendment
21 (prohibiting deprivation of life, liberty, or property without due 22 process of law); and

23 (7) the actions described by Subdivision (5) of this 24 subsection as authorized by Sections 1021 and 1022 of the National
