H.C.R. No. 88

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, The current Texas Constitution is this state's fifth
2 charter document since statehood, having been formed on the basis
3 of previous documents dating back to the days when Texas was an 4 independent republic; and

5 WHEREAS, The proud independence of Texas has carried forth 6 inimitably through each of its constitutions, granting the 7 government limited powers and giving broad control to voters, 8 thereby embodying the principle of "consent of the governed"; and

9 WHEREAS, First enacted in 1876, the Texas Constitution was 10 organized into 289 sections contained within 17 articles outlining 11 the scope, role, and limitations of governance in this state;
12 through proposed changes sent to Texas voters by the legislature,
13 sections within those same 17 articles have been added and deleted, 14 bringing our current document to 385 sections; and

15 WHEREAS, The Texas Constitution of 1876 has expanded through 16 the ratification of proposed amendments, with 474 amendments being 17 approved, while 179 have been defeated; and

18 WHEREAS, Today the Texas Constitution is the nation's 19 second-longest such document; sections have been placed in the 20 constitution with apparent disregard for the appropriate article 21 with which they belong; outdated bonding authority and other 22 archaic references remain bound in the document, despite previous 23 attempts to address nonsubstantive revisions to the Texas
24 Constitution, the most recent of which occurred in 1999; and

1 WHEREAS, The Texas Constitution of 1876 remains the supreme 2 law of the State of Texas, and a strong, independent statement
3 asserting the right of Texans to shape their government to their 4 view and their capacity to support it; now, therefore, be it

5 RESOLVED, That the 83rd Legislature of the State of Texas
6 hereby request the lieutenant governor and the speaker of the house
7 of representatives to create a joint interim committee to study a
8 nonsubstantive reorganization of the Texas Constitution; and, be it 9 further

10 RESOLVED, That the committee submit a full report, including 11 findings and recommendations, to the 84th Texas Legislature in 12 January 2015.
