2 Texas State Capitol to celebrate Rusk County Days on April 2 and 3, 3 2013; and

4 WHEREAS, A picturesque region of rolling hills in the Piney
5 Woods of East Texas, Rusk County was first occupied by the Caddo and 6 the Cherokee tribes; the first European settlers arrived in the 7 1830s, and on January 16, 1843, the county was formed by act of the 8 Congress of the Republic of Texas and named after Thomas Jefferson 9 Rusk, secretary of war under Texas President Sam Houston; and

10 WHEREAS, For many years, the county's economy was based on 11 cotton and other agriculture, but on October 3, 1930, Columbus
12 Marion "Dad" Joiner struck oil at his famous Daisy Bradford #3 well, 13 opening up the East Texas oil field, which at the time was the 14 largest oil field in the world; three years later, Rusk County was 15 producing over 200 million barrels of petroleum a year, turning 16 county seat Henderson from a sleepy village to a bustling boomtown;
17 and

18 WHEREAS, Oil and agriculture continue to be mainstays of the 19 county's economy, along with natural gas, timber, and the mining of 20 lignite coal; in addition, Rusk County's bricks, made from the 21 region's unique clay soil, are highly prized; the county economy is 22 further bolstered by two correctional institutions, including the 23 Bradshaw State Jail in Henderson; and

24 WHEREAS, Only two miles from "Dad" Joiner's original well,

1 the Gaston Museum in Joinerville commemorates the history of the 2 East Texas oil field; in Henderson, the Depot Museum, a beautifully
3 restored Missouri Pacific railway depot from 1901, hosts the annual 4 Heritage Syrup Festival every November; recreational opportunities
5 abound in the county's parks, including Martin Creek Lake State 6 Park, which offers swimming, boating, fishing, waterskiing, and 7 other activities; and

8 WHEREAS, Honoring their heritage as they embrace the 9 opportunities of the future, the citizens of Rusk County may take 10 great pride in the role their communities have played in the story
11 of the Lone Star State; now, therefore, be it

12 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 83rd Texas
13 Legislature hereby recognize April 2 and 3, 2013, as Rusk County
14 Days at the State Capitol and extend to the county's visiting 15 citizens a warm welcome and best wishes for an enjoyable stay in 16 Austin.
