H.R. No. 267

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, The volunteers, staff, and board members who make up
2 the Texas Court Appointed Special Advocates organization are 3 gathering in Austin on January 30, 2013, for CASA Day at the 4 Capitol; and

5 WHEREAS, Court appointed special advocates are individuals
6 who speak up for children removed from their homes due to abuse or 7 neglect; sworn in by judges, CASA volunteers make certain that 8 these young people have a voice in the family court, social service, 9 and foster care systems, and the advocates remain focused on each 10 child until he or she is placed in a safe, permanent home and the 11 case is closed; often, the volunteers are a rare source of stability 12 in the lives of the young people they assist; and

13 WHEREAS, The CASA movement began in Seattle in 1977, when a 14 judge realized that he needed to know more about the young victims 15 of abuse and neglect who appeared in his courtroom; the 16 contributions of the volunteers who responded to his request for 17 assistance were so valuable that the program quickly spread to 18 other states; the first CASA program in Texas began in 1979, and 19 there are currently 69 local programs in the state that together 20 provide life-changing advocacy to more than half of the children in 21 the foster care system; and

22 WHEREAS, A diverse group that comes from a broad range of 23 backgrounds, CASA volunteers in Texas research a child's situation, 24 offer information and recommendations about the individual's best

1 interests, and work with the state to find the young person a 2 "forever family"; in 2012, more than 7,200 volunteers gave help and 3 hope to more than 22,900 children; and

4 WHEREAS, Countless residents of Texas benefit from the 5 critical services provided by CASA volunteers, whose work ensures 6 that a most vulnerable group in our society is not forgotten; now,
7 therefore, be it

8 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 83rd Texas 9 Legislature hereby recognize January 30, 2013, as CASA Day at the 10 Capitol and commend all those associated with Texas CASA for their 11 steadfast commitment and admirable achievements; and, be it further

12 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 13 prepared for the organization as an expression of high regard by the 14 Texas House of Representatives.
