1       WHEREAS, With the passing of Joe Clifton Moseley II of 2 Rockport on November 25, 2012, the State of Texas lost an admired
3 and knowledgeable authority on coastal, environmental, and 4 transportation issues; and

5       WHEREAS, A native of Fort Worth, Joe Moseley was born on 6 October 21, 1944, and grew up in Joshua; he graduated with a
7 bachelor's degree in civil engineering from Texas A&M University
8 and went on to earn a master's degree in environmental health and a 9 doctorate in civil engineering from The University of Texas at 10 Austin, and his dissertation was honored as the best produced at UT 11 in 1973; and

12       WHEREAS, Dr. Moseley began his career as a water systems
13 engineer with the Texas Water Development Board, and he joined the 14 governor's staff for natural resource programs in 1970; two years
15 later, he was appointed executive director of the Texas Coastal and 16 Marine Council and subsequently held the post of deputy general 17 manager of the Texas Deepwater Port Authority; during his time in 18 these positions, he managed dozens of special studies for the 19 governor's office and the Texas Legislature on subjects such as 20 fisheries, marine transportation, disaster planning, and tourism, 21 and he oversaw the development of a comprehensive coastal resource 22 management plan; moreover, he often traveled to Washington, D.C., 23 where he was a member of several national advisory committees on 24 offshore petroleum and coastal management; and

1       WHEREAS, In 1980, Dr. Moseley left the public sector to work 2 as manager of business development and vice president of 3 engineering for the Goldstone Corporation, and five years later, he 4 cofounded Shiner Moseley and Associates, Inc., in Corpus Christi; 5 he was a principal partner in the firm until 2005, when it was 6 acquired by HDR Engineering, and he continued to serve as a
7 consultant for the company until his retirement from the business
8 in 2009; and

9       WHEREAS, Highly respected by his peers, Dr. Moseley was 10 selected as the 2007 recipient of the Morrough P. O'Brien Award 11 from the American Shore and Beach Preservation Association for his 12 lifetime achievements in conservation and environmental 13 stewardship; his expertise was further recognized with his 14 gubernatorial appointment to the inaugural management committee of 15 the Corpus Christi Bay National Estuary Program; and

16       WHEREAS, Dr. Moseley played a prominent role in various 17 business, civic, and educational organizations as well; his 18 accomplishments include serving as director of the Texas Chamber of 19 Commerce and as chair of the board of managers of Memorial Medical 20 Center, and he also taught as an adjunct professor at Texas A&M
21 University--Corpus Christi for nearly two decades; in his free 22 time, he enjoyed hunting, fishing, boating, spending time with his 23 family, and traveling with his wife, Karen; and

24       WHEREAS, With his broad range of expertise, Joe Moseley made 25 a positive difference in numerous fields of endeavor, and his 26 achievements will continue to resonate in the Lone Star State and 27 beyond for many years to come; now, therefore, be it
