1 WHEREAS, Many proud residents of Penitas traveled to the 2 State Capitol on January 30, 2013, and the visit provided a showcase 3 for the city's rich heritage and vibrant features; and

4 WHEREAS, According to local tradition, Penitas was founded by 5 a group of survivors of the Panfilo de Narvaez expedition of 1520;
6 formed to supplant Hernando Cortez and his forces in Mexico, the 7 expedition failed when Narvaez and his troops were defeated in 8 battle and imprisoned; after being released the next year, Narvaez
9 embarked on a second expedition to Florida, leaving behind Fray
10 Zamora and several of his officers, who instead opted to settle in a 11 site along the Rio Grande; Zamora's group befriended the local 12 Calero Indians and began homesteading the land, which they named 13 Penitas, meaning "little stones"; today, this moment in history is 14 commemorated with a Texas Historical Marker; and

15 WHEREAS, Now home to some 7,500 residents, Penitas is a
