H.R. No. 618

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Proud residents of Waller County are gathering in 2 Austin on February 27, 2013, to celebrate Waller County Day at the 3 State Capitol; and

4 WHEREAS, The Waller County area was originally settled by 5 members of Stephen F. Austin's Old Three Hundred during the 1820s; 6 shortly thereafter, it became the site of perhaps the first cotton 7 plantation in Texas, which was used as an encampment by members of 8 General Sam Houston's army during the Texas Revolution; in 1873,
9 the county was carved from sections of Austin and Grimes Counties
10 and named after Edwin Waller, a signer of the Texas Declaration of 11 Independence and the first mayor of Austin; and

12 WHEREAS, Waller County's growth was chiefly driven by 13 agriculture, with cotton, corn, and cattle serving as mainstays,
14 until the discovery of petroleum in the 1930s helped to diversify 15 its economy; today, farming, ranching, and mineral resources are 16 important to the area, and its rural character and proximity to 17 Houston have made it an attractive destination for new residents; 18 and

19 WHEREAS, Hempstead is the county seat and the host of the 20 annual Waller County Fair as well as its Watermelon Festival, a 21 favorite of residents and visitors alike; Prairie View, which was 22 recently named one of the best cities to raise a family by Bloomberg
23 Business Weekly, is home to Prairie View A&M University, the 24 second-oldest public institution of higher learning in the state,

1 and Brookshire is a quaint rural town that is the location of 2 Brookwood Community as well as several international companies that 3 serve as major employers; while only parts of Waller and Katy are in 4 the county, they are both fast-growing cities that boast excellent 5 schools and contribute greatly to the culture and prosperity of the 6 county; and

7 WHEREAS, Honoring their rich heritage as they work toward 8 building an even brighter future, the citizens of Waller County
9 have many reasons to be proud of the place they call home; now,
10 therefore, be it

11 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 83rd Texas
12 Legislature hereby recognize February 27, 2013, as Waller County
13 Day at the State Capitol and extend to the visiting delegation
14 sincere best wishes for an enjoyable stay in Austin.
