

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, For the third year in a row, the city of El Paso has
2 been named as the safest large city in the United States by CQ
3 Press; and

4 WHEREAS, An independent research and publishing firm, CQ
5 Press annually compiles a ranking of cities by their crime rates, 6 with the communities being grouped by population size; the most 7 recent results were calculated from the FBI Uniform Crime Reporting
8 data for 2011, looking at statistics for murder, rape, robbery,
9 aggravated assault, burglary, larceny, vehicle theft, and arson;
10 and

11 WHEREAS, Among cities with populations over 500,000, El Paso
12 had the lowest crime rate in the nation, and it also earned that 13 notable designation in the two previous CQ Press studies; and

14 WHEREAS, Mayor John Cook and Police Chief Greg Allen can take 15 great pride in the dedicated efforts of the city's police 16 department, which have included a policy of community policing that 17 has yielded exemplary results; and

18 WHEREAS, Elected officials, law enforcement officers, and 19 engaged citizens have pulled together to make El Paso an 20 outstanding place to live, work, and raise a family, and their 21 success in that initiative is reflected in the city's exemplary
22 showing in this important national crime assessment; now,
23 therefore, be it

24 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 83rd Texas

H.R. No. 774

1 Legislature hereby congratulate El Paso on being named the safest
2 large city in America by CQ Press and extend to its residents
3 sincere best wishes for the future.

Marquez

H.R. No. 774

Speaker of the House

I certify that H.R. No. 774 was adopted by the House on March 20, 2013, by a non-record vote.

Chief Clerk of the House