

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, Citizens of Arlington lost an admired civic leader
2 with the passing of former council member Franklin Eugene Patrick 3 on September 8, 2012, at the age of 72; and

4           WHEREAS, The son of Vertis and Martha Patrick, Gene Patrick 5 was born in Cleburne on July 16, 1940; he moved to Arlington at the 6 age of 11 and graduated from Arlington High School before going on 7 to attend The University of Texas at Arlington; and

8           WHEREAS, Mr. Patrick found employment with the Great 9 Southwest Corporation after college and was a member of the 10 original Six Flags Over Texas staff; this marked the beginning of a 11 distinguished 30-year career as a creative executive for theme 12 parks and entertainment venues around the world; known for his 13 expertise in design, costuming, and animation, he rose to become 14 vice president of Marriott's Great America parks before his 15 retirement in 1985; he subsequently moved back to Arlington and 16 founded his own companies, GP Show Productions and Showtek 17 Corporation; his client list included Six Flags AstroWorld in 18 Houston, the MGM Grand Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas, Hershey's
19 Chocolate World in Pennsylvania, and an indoor theme park in China; 20 and

21           WHEREAS, For more than a quarter-century, Mr. Patrick was 22 highly engaged in civic life, focusing particularly on downtown
23 revitalization and the arts; he served three terms on the Arlington
24 Planning and Zoning Commission and was president of the original

1 Downtown Arlington, Inc., as well as a member of the Downtown
2 Arlington Revitalization Committee; in 2003, he was elected to the 3 first of five terms on the city council, a position that allowed him
4 to work even harder for the betterment of Arlington; although 5 health issues obliged him to resign in November 2011, he continued 6 to follow matters of concern to the city and generously shared his 7 knowledge with others; and

8       WHEREAS, This dynamic Texan further served his community
9 through the years as a Rotarian and as a member of the boards of the 10 chamber of commerce, the Chamber Foundation, the Arlington
11 Community Band, Theatre Arlington, the Arlington Museum of Art, and 12 the American Heart Association; moreover, he served on the UTA
13 Development Board and the UTA Liberal Arts Board; in 1999, he and 14 his wife, Penny, purchased the former Chamber of Commerce building
15 to aid the chamber's expansion into a new office complex and donated 16 use of the building to Theatre Arlington for its administrative 17 offices and education center; and

18       WHEREAS, A man of great faith, Mr. Patrick was a valued
19 member of First United Methodist Church for over 50 years and served 20 as board trustee chair; he played trumpet in the band and orchestra,
21 sang in the choir, and arranged the music for many church concerts 22 and holiday events; and

23       WHEREAS, Gene Patrick made a lasting, positive difference in 24 Arlington through his vision and selfless commitment, and although 25 he is deeply missed, his love for his community will continue to 26 inspire his fellow citizens; now, therefore, be it

27       RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 83rd Texas

H.R. No. 975

1 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the memory of Franklin Eugene
