

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Representatives of Healthy Living Matters are 2 visiting the State Capitol on March 27, 2013, and this occasion
3 provides an ideal opportunity to honor the group for its efforts to 4 curb childhood obesity in Harris County; and

5 WHEREAS, A public-private collaborative, Healthy Living
6 Matters unites area leaders from a variety of sectors to formulate 7 and promote policies that can bring about system and environmental 8 changes that will have a positive impact on the well-being of young 9 Texans; it was established in 2011 as a two-year initiative through 10 a $2.5 million grant from the Houston Endowment to the Harris County
11 Healthcare Alliance, and it is overseen by Harris County Public 12 Health and Environmental Services; and

13 WHEREAS, Childhood obesity has more than doubled among 14 children and tripled among adolescents in the United States over 15 the past three decades; in Texas, more than a fifth of children
16 suffer from obesity, which has both immediate and long-term effects 17 on their health and well-being; obese youth are more likely to have 18 risk factors for cardiovascular disease, and they are more prone to 19 prediabetes, sleep apnea, and bone and joint problems, as well as 20 social and psychological problems, such as stigmatization and poor 21 self-esteem; moreover, children and adolescents who are obese are 22 likely to remain obese as adults, heightening their susceptibility 23 to a host of diseases; and

24 WHEREAS, In Harris County, parents trying to raise healthy

1 children currently face a number of challenges; for instance, many 2 neighborhoods lack safe, accessible places for youngsters to play
3 and do not have grocery stores with a good selection of healthy 4 foods; the members of Healthy Living Matters are working to 5 identify and address obstacles to fitness and well-being in 6 consultation with experts in such areas as child health, community 7 planning, economic development, and the environment; and

8 WHEREAS, Childhood obesity is an increasingly serious
9 problem in our society, but the members of Healthy Living Matters 10 are committed to crafting policies that will make it easier for 11 Harris County families to choose lifestyles that support wellness;
12 now, therefore, be it

13 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 83rd Texas
14 Legislature hereby honor Healthy Living Matters for its noteworthy 15 contributions and extend to the members sincere best wishes for 16 success in their important work; and, be it further

17 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 18 prepared for Healthy Living Matters as an expression of high regard 19 by the Texas House of Representatives.
