

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Ellis Davis, Jr., a respected coach and teacher in 2 the Dallas public schools, passed away on March 13, 2013, at the age
3 of 81, and the loss is keenly felt by all who were privileged to know 4 him; and

5 WHEREAS, Born on October 11, 1931, in Tyler to Ellis Davis,
6 Sr., and Ara Williams Davis, Ellis Davis, Jr., graduated from 7 Emmett Scott High School in his hometown; he served his country in 8 the United States Army and earned a bachelor's degree from Bishop
9 College, where he was active in the Omega Psi Phi fraternity; later,
10 he received a master's degree in education from North Texas State 11 University; and

12 WHEREAS, After settling in Dallas, Mr. Davis became a member
13 of Good Street Baptist Church, and he served the congregation as a 14 deacon, as an athletic director, and as a member of the outreach 15 ministry and the Good Street Charitable Foundation; and

16 WHEREAS, During his long career with the Dallas Independent
17 School District, Mr. Davis taught classes at the elementary, middle 18 school, and high school levels, and he became particularly well 19 known for his distinguished service as the basketball coach at 20 Roosevelt High School; after fielding the school's first team in 21 1963, he went on to establish a 641-128 record over the course of 23 22 years; one of the highlights of his decades on the sideline came in 23 1972, when the Mustangs claimed the 4A state championship and 24 scored a record-high 111 points in a semifinal game; he also guided

1 Roosevelt to the state tournament on another occasion, and he 2 placed a strong emphasis on helping his athletes to excel in the 3 classroom as well as on the court; revered by his players and his 4 peers, he was inducted into the Texas Black Sports Hall of Fame in 5 1996, and his name graces a Dallas ISD basketball facility and a 6 basketball tournament; and

7 WHEREAS, Mr. Davis married the love of his life, Bettye
8 Dennis, in 1957, and they shared a rewarding relationship that 9 spanned more than half a century; he became the father of three 10 sons, Dennis Davis, Rodney Davis, and Ellis Davis III, who preceded 11 his father in death, as well as a daughter, Marriette Spates; with 12 the passing years, he saw his family grow to include five 13 grandchildren; and

14 WHEREAS, Ellis Davis, Jr., devoted himself to the worthy goal
15 of helping students to learn the values of responsibility and hard 16 work, and he will long be remembered for the integrity that he 17 demonstrated in all of his endeavors; now, therefore, be it
