H.R. No. 1590

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Thirty Texas A&M University students are providing 2 valuable support to the 83rd Texas Legislature while gaining 3 experience in public service as members of the Agricultural and 4 Natural Resources Policy Internship Program and the Public Policy
5 Internship Program; and

6 WHEREAS, For more than two decades, the Agricultural and 7 Natural Resources Policy Internship Program has sent student
8 interns to Austin and Washington, D.C., where they work on a wide 9 array of issues; their strong background and interest in 10 agriculture and natural resources allow them to offer specialized 11 knowledge to legislators; the program was founded in response to a 12 request by a member of the United States Congress for an intern who 13 could assist his office with these matters, and it has since grown 14 to include numerous congressional offices as well as the United 15 States House of Representatives Committee on Agriculture, the 16 United States Department of Agriculture, and offices on the state 17 level during legislative years; more than 700 students have 18 participated in semester-long internships; and

19 WHEREAS, The Public Policy Internship Program, established 20 in 1999, works with various colleges and departments to create an 21 interdisciplinary environment for comprehensive academic training,
22 research, and policy programming; interns in the nation's capital 23 and in Austin serve in a variety of settings that align with their 24 academic and professional goals; more than 400 students have

1 participated in semester-long internships; and

2 WHEREAS, Led by director Heather Wheeler, both internship
3 programs select their highly qualified and dedicated participants 4 through a rigorous application process; in addition to academic 5 achievement, students must demonstrate their potential to take full 6 advantage of the opportunities for scholarly and professional 7 development as well as the desire to serve our state and nation; and

8 WHEREAS, The 2013 Texas A&M University policy interns serving
9 in Austin are RosaLeah Brite, Ethan Caudillo, Tatiana Claros, Macy
10 Cotton, Kaysi Dean, Meredith Earwood, Daniel Evert, Jamie Feldt,

14 Norman, Grace Richardson, Jesus Rodriguez, Jennifer Salazar,
15 Morgan Scott, Xanthe Shirley, Daniela Silva, Bryan Smith, JohnPaul
16 Wiechkoske, and Anna Wood; and

17 WHEREAS, Through the years, the Agricultural and Natural 18 Resources Policy and Public Policy Internship Programs have helped 19 exceptional students deepen their understanding of governmental 20 operations while developing professional skills and networks, and 21 alumni have gone on to make vital contributions and assume 22 leadership roles in a variety of arenas; the outstanding young 23 people who are giving of their time and talents throughout this 24 legislative session can indeed take pride in their achievements and 25 service to the Lone Star State; now, therefore, be it

26 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 83rd Texas
27 Legislature hereby recognize the Texas A&M University Agricultural
