

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, The State of Texas lost a distinguished native son
2 on April 19, 2013, with the passing of John F. Sutton, Jr., former 3 dean of The University of Texas School of Law; and

4 WHEREAS, Born in Alpine on January 26, 1918, John Sutton was 5 the son of John and Pauline Sutton; he grew up in San Angelo and 6 worked on his father's ranch in Tom Green County before graduating 7 from San Angelo High School; while attending the UT School of Law,
8 he met a classmate, Nancy Ewing, whom he married on June 1, 1940;
9 the couple would go on to become the parents of two treasured
10 children, Nancy and John, and to share 72 years together; and

11 WHEREAS, Mr. Sutton graduated from law school with honors in 12 1941 and briefly practiced in San Antonio; at the start of World War
13 II, he joined the Federal Bureau of Investigation as a special
14 agent, and later, during the Korean War, he served as a first
15 lieutenant, Judge Advocate General's Corps, in the United States
16 Army Reserves; and

17 WHEREAS, In 1950, Mr. Sutton returned to San Angelo to 18 practice law with his wife and his father, a retired district court 19 judge; his sterling qualifications led the UT School of Law to 20 appoint him as a tenured full professor in 1957 although he had 21 never taught law before, and he won a teaching excellence award very 22 early in his career; bringing real-world experience to the 23 classroom, he helped his students gain a greater understanding of 24 legal principles, and his sense of humor, as well as his intellect

1 and insight, made lessons especially memorable; he also taught at a
2 number of other institutions over the years, among them Texas Tech
3 University, the University of California, Los Angeles, and South
4 Texas School of Law; and

5 WHEREAS, This brilliant scholar gained national recognition
6 for his particular expertise in legal ethics, evidence, and torts;
7 he was one of the original drafters of the American Bar
8 Association's Model Rules of Professional Responsibility, and he 9 served two terms on its Standing Committee on Ethics and 10 Professional Responsibility; moreover, he served as chair of the 11 Professional Ethics Committee of the State Bar of Texas, and in 12 1977, he was the evidence advisor for the joint committee of the 13 Texas Senate and House of Representatives during its hearing 14 regarding Texas Supreme Court justice Don Yarbrough; Mr. Sutton was 15 the coauthor of two editions of Cases and Materials on Professional 16 Responsibility and of several editions of McCormick, Elliott, and 17 Sutton, Cases and Materials on Evidence; and

18 WHEREAS, Appointed head of the law school in 1979, Dean
19 Sutton promoted a collegial, productive environment, setting a 20 standard of excellence while retaining his easygoing, unassuming
21 ways; he dedicated himself to advancing the school's reputation 22 through the recruitment and retention of top-notch faculty, and he 23 was an inspiring mentor and role model; after concluding his tenure
24 as dean in 1984, he continued to teach until his retirement in 2003
25 at the age of 85, and at 90, he was appointed to the state bar's
26 Standing Committee on Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct; 27 and

1 WHEREAS, The law school presented Dean Sutton with its 2 Outstanding Alumnus Award in 1990, and it later named one of its 3 eight societies in his honor and established the Dean John 4 F. Sutton, Jr. Chair in Lawyering and the Legal Process through an 5 endowment by a former student; in addition, the Texas Law Review
6 Association created the John F. Sutton, Jr. Endowed Presidential 7 Scholarship in Law, and the Texas Bar Foundation presented him with 8 an Outstanding 50 Year Lawyer Award; Dean Sutton was a fellow of the 9 American Bar Foundation and a life member of the Texas Bar 10 Foundation; and

11 WHEREAS, In his leisure time, he loved to travel with his 12 wife, and they visited every state in the country as well as many 13 countries in Europe, Africa, and South America; he also raised 14 Black Angus cattle and maintained horses at a small farm south of 15 Austin; and

16 WHEREAS, John Sutton left a lasting imprint on the legal 17 profession and made a positive difference in innumerable lives;
18 although he will be deeply missed, his contributions will continue
19 to resonate for years to come; now, therefore, be it

20 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 83rd Texas
