1 WHEREAS, The observance of Texas Federation for Republican
2 Outreach Legislative Day at the State Capitol on May 23, 2013,
3 provides a fitting opportunity to recognize the notable service of 4 Charles Jackson of Houston as a former Republican Party precinct 5 chair; and

6 WHEREAS, Established in 1986 as the Black Republican Council
7 of Texas, the Texas Federation for Republican Outreach is an 8 auxiliary of the Republican Party of Texas that recruits African 9 American voters as Republican precinct chairs in Harris and Fort
10 Bend Counties; citizens who have participated in this initiative
11 come from a wide range of backgrounds, but they share common values, 12 including devotion to family, faith, and freedom, and they strive 13 together to promote increased diversity in the party; and

14 WHEREAS, Precinct chairs serve as the ambassadors of their 15 political party, and they take on responsibilities that require 16 tremendous dedication and many hours of hard work; moreover, they 17 serve as election judges in primary and general elections; these 18 civic-minded individuals are integral to the success of the party's 19 mission to elect public servants who will build a better tomorrow; 20 and

21 WHEREAS, Through their involvement, precinct chairs are 22 making a positive difference in their communities, this state, and 23 the nation, and they may take justifiable pride in their admirable
24 record of civic engagement; now, therefore, be it
