H.R. No. 3019

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Margaret Cook, a participant in the Environment and 2 Energy Law Internship Program of Texas, has rendered outstanding
3 service to the House Energy Caucus during the 83rd Legislative 4 Session; and

5 WHEREAS, Since 2010, EELIPT has offered graduate students in 6 law, public policy, engineering, or other related disciplines the 7 opportunity to gain hands-on energy and environmental policy
8 experience at the Texas Legislature; participants conduct
9 research, write memos, attend hearings, track legislation, 10 collaborate with stakeholders, and carry out other tasks; the 11 program is sponsored by State Representative Lon Burnam and is 12 administered by the Environmental Defense Fund, which, along with 13 other groups, provides training to the internship class;

14 WHEREAS, While Texas is one of the country's leading energy 15 producers and is home to numerous innovative energy industries, the 16 state also faces a unique set of challenges related to historic 17 drought conditions and phenomenal population growth; given these 18 factors, the state is positioned to be a key player in the evolving 19 efforts to address energy needs while preserving the environment 20 for future generations; and

21 WHEREAS, Margaret Cook has gained invaluable experience in 22 energy and environmental policy making at the Texas Legislature
23 that will serve her well as she continues her studies at the LBJ
24 School of Public Affairs and the Cockrell School of Engineering at

1 The University of Texas at Austin, and she is indeed deserving of 2 special recognition for her hard work and commitment to excellence;
